

Neal Horton

Education:

- (2006) Actors Centre – Attended numerous classes in the “Technique of Acting” and “Acting on Film”.
- (2003-2006) University of New South Wales – Graduated on 16/5/06 with a BA, Majors in History and Psychology. Social director of Basser College 2004.

Industry Experience:

- Around 50 days on camera as stunt performer
- The Pacific – “Lt Iseman” Ep.1 and Ep.2
- Wolverine – “Stryker Soldier”
- False Witness – “Russian Courier”
- Home and Away - 9 episodes
- All Saints - 5 episodes
- Underbelly II – 2 episodes
- Packed to the rafters – 4 episodes
- Ads – 7 including 2 featured
- Swift and Shift – 3 episodes
- Gladiators – Training competitors and testing games
- Many more days on set doing rigging, safety assist, and stunt assist.

Relevant Skills:

- Martial Arts –11 years Martial Arts experience. I acquired my Black Belt in Chuan Fa Kung Fu at the end of 2004. I have also studied Wing Chung, Capoeira, Judo, Wrestling and Kickboxing.
- Gymnastics and Acrobatics – Life long interest, with 7 years of formal training.
- Le Parkour – Advanced street style acrobatics.
- Rock Climbing and Abseiling - Advanced level with Australian School of Mountaineering.
- 30 Foot High Fall – Trained and witnessed by Stunt Coordinator.
- Bronze Medallion Swimming/Lifesaving Certificate
- Motorbike License / Dirt Bike Riding
- Boat License
- Advanced Driving Course
- Senior First Aid Certificate

Other Interests:

- Film Making – (2009) Writer Director of “Tip” - Screened at Melbourne Comedy Festival.

Personal Strengths:

I am a very committed and hard working person. I have a strong willingness to learn and am keen to try new things. I have excellent communication skills and a friendly disposition. I am very enthusiastic and love to perform in front of crowds. It is my ambition to be successful as both an actor and a stunt performer in the near future.